My dear Principal,

I called with these papers, hoping to find you at home, so as to make any necessary explanations.

The note, accompanying them, I have left unsigned, as I supposed they ought to be signed by you as convener of the Committee.

I have unfortunately lost the list of institutions which I had at the Committee meeting.

but I enclose on a piece of paper all those which I can think of at the moment as admitting women.

There are one or two other points on which I wished a few minutes' talk, but I shall take a chance of seeing you again during the holidays.
Meanwhile I take the liberty of saying, in reference to Mr. Greenfield's request, that, if it is connected, as his friends desire, with any particular professorship, it would be well to contemplate the division of our present chairs in the designation, in order to avoid any clashing with future endowments. But probably you have thought of this already.

With all the Complts
of the day

Very truly yours,
Clark Murray
