83 Dundas St.,
Toronto,
28th May 1883.

Dear Sir,

I had the pleasure of being introduced to you some years ago by the late Mr Webster Kentville, N.S. His son Arthur studied at McGill and is now distinguished in Edinburgh as assistant professor I think.

I am a returned missionary from N. B. where I succeeded late Mr Seddie. I have lost my voice entirely and am at a great loss consequently. Medical men are puzzled with my case. Mr MacKinnon, Siskin, Cook and others have shown much sympathy for me and enclosed me less or more to help me till July when I shall receive the Inferior Ministers aid. As every tittle makes a muddle I hope you will pardon my stating the case to you. I have spent all I had on physicians, Dr and by my daughters will help but at present cannot.

Yours respectfully
Rev W. W. Cullagh

Dr Dawson,
Principal,
McGill College,
Montreal.
