Prof. J. H. Sawson,

Dear Sir:—

We are constantly reaching out to secure for the Congregationalist the best newspaper writers to be found, and I write to inquire whether it may not be practicable for you to furnish something for our paper for the coming fall or winter. I enclose a last year's prospectus which will give you some idea of the scope of the paper. No special topic occurs to me and I should deem it a favor could you name several different subjects of public interest in which you might be able to write, and then allow me to indicate which might be most timely for us. You may be so busy about other work as to feel unable to respond in the affirmative to this invitation, but ~~and~~ experience leads me to look most hopefully to busy men when we are in want of matter for the readers of our paper.

Hoping to hear from you in due time I am

Yours respectfully,

C. A. Richardson.

P.S. We should expect to make you a liberal compensation

C. A. R.
