Paris.

Oct 9. 1883.

My Dear Sir

Mrs. Jellied and I shall be very sorry if you and Mrs. Dawson return to America without one having had the pleasure of seeing you. We expect to reach home on Saturday next Oct 13, and shall be very glad indeed if you can pay us a visit at Harpenden next week? If you can stay one or two nights do much the better. In that case you can leave St Pancras Station at 4.20 or 5.0 P.M. or even later. If you cannot stay a night you best train from London is at 11.15 A.M. and you can return in the evening even as late as 10 P.M.

I think you would be interested to see ^{our} operations which are now in the 4th few of their progress.
Wm. Robert Key Esq

me in very kind regards and I am yours sincerely J. H. Lusk

Any day after Tuesday will suit us, perhaps the earlier the better as we expect to see friends soon; but if the ~~next~~ following week will do if you like please so arrange
