Dear Dr Dawson

It is doubtful if I can be in the City tomorrow, so do not call then. I will try to get Mrs Macaulay, or one of my girls, to call on Mrs Dawson tomorrow Friday, early in the forenoon. It would be well if they could say to Mrs Peake

at Cairo that they had seen her Cousins. Mr Peake is one of the managers of the Khedive's papers and has much to do with natives. So he may be of use to you, as Mr Peake may be to Mr Dawson in matter of bazaars &
other light-seeing.

I have already written to Dr Bliss, Principal of the Beyrout College.

They have a Museum
there, and I believe a specially good series of fossils, fish & other.

Mr Daniel Blair, his wife (with their son one of the Beirut staff) is in London on the way to Boston U.S.

Mr Dawson had time to see her on Saturday, it would doubtless be a pleasure to the now lonely principal to say

They had seen Mrs. Stein in London. She is a very nice woman, one of the best sort of Americans.
I will write to Mr.
Peake by next mail.

If you are in the City tomorrow I saw our Secretary, Dr. White, who might give you the letters but the card of any one from our R.T.S. will be sufficient introduction as we largely help all good work in these regions. Y<sup>rs</sup> James Macaulay.

D. Lausing M.D will tell you everything about Upper Egypt.

Mr Francis Rowell is the Chief British Commissioner in Egypt as to the Khedive's projects.

Mr Peake has some public post Mrs Peake is a cousin of Mrs

Macaulay's niece Whitworth & she will tell you Dawson's interesting Manchester

Mr Friedlander, a Christian Jew a man highly esteemed in Palestine will tell you of all things & people in Southern Syria. a young nursing

Mr Dezeret is a very nice fellow, and Mrs Dezeret a very pleasing lady, speaks English thoroughly.

At Port Said there is a Scottish minister or missionary whose name I forget. These official men can be useful in commending trusty native guides or servants. So at Alexandria any minister or worker living 56 P. Row.

Have a talk with the French border Pasha, if he is well enough. He is recruiting health in the mountains near Jerusalem.
Friedland will tell you where.

Dr. Glaisher, Secy of the Patent Office, Exploration &c.
I suppose you have seen the office is in the Adelphi.
I do not know if Hull has got gone out.
