Sir

Since writing you this morning and enclosing receipt for cheque.

My messenger has returned with the microscope he having arrived to state to catch you although he was at Postbournie Terrace by 9.30.

Should you be staying in England a day or so longer and can send me the address you would like the instrument forwarded to, it shall be packed and sent off with the utmost despatch.

But should there not be time for this to be done

I will destroy your cheque as requested

Yours truly
