Dear Mr Swett,

Send by mail to-day the M.S. of chapters IV & V of my little book, with title, contents and

Copies of illustrations with their titles & numbers.

I trust the whole will reach you in safety and with the satisfaction,

I shall hope to have proof, as this

Ms. A. 9. 2. 11. 18

London

will be important, and especially where so many foreign names are used, and if sent by mail I shall return it at once in as to cause
 no delay,

I enclose Memo
 of mine paid for cuts, which I trust have reached you safely.
 There will be another
 to send by mail next week if following,

but for this I need not change anything.

I would like to have 120 copies of the book
when printed, at as low a price as you can afford them for distribution. I wish to give away about 80 copies to friends here, and about 20 to friends in Britain & elsewhere in the old world, and suppose you will be willing to give me these

Copy to Lowell
Dec/89

Copies at a low rate,
There is no hurry about the payment of the expense of the cuts. I can wait till the books out.

With all good wishes
of the team,
Yours truly
William
Ely
