Consciousness of Safety.

In his address at Boston, the Rev. Phillip. Brooks dwelt on the "Great Consciousness of Safety" which life assurance gives to those whe are assured. He described it as eliminating a large part of the worry of life; as putting thight "a great many of those distressing and carking troubles that keep men from living their true lives." In pursuing this line of though he said;—

There are cases of consumption so far advanced that Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup will not give relief. For coughs, colds and all affections of the throat, lungs and chest, it is a specific which has never been known to fail. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, thereby removing the phlegm, and gives the diseased parts a chance to heal. There is a post-office in Virginia called "Blacks and Whites."

Mr. G. W. Macully, Pavilion Mountain, B.C., writes: "Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is the best medicine I ever used for Rheumatism. Nearly every winter I am laid up with Rheumatism, and have tried nearly every kind of medicine without getting any benefit, until I used Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. It has worked wonders for me, and I want another supply for my friends. &c. another supply for my friends, &c. In some boarding houses the weakness of the coffee is offset by the strength of the
