My Dear Sir William

I enclose you a letter of the irrepressible W. H. in today's Globe.

If you are able to reply, saying explicitly that your future plans include a total separation in all the teaching of lady students, both in pass & honor work,

I wish you would write and say so.

But if the matter is doubtful; or you are assuming that certain

subjects lie outside of ordinary female study,
— and if women will take them, it must be done in mixed classes. — There leave W. H. alone. He is an idle man, & eager for controversy.

But if you can make a clear & explicit reply to him on his main points you will do a real service. In haste faithfully
J. M. Trotter

P.S. I congratulate you heartily on the prospective U. S. Presidency, an honor to Canada
as well as to you.

Wm
