Sir J. W. Dawson,

Pointe aux Lacs, McGill,

Dear Sir, I honestly acknowledge with my best thanks your kindness in sending me so interesting a collection of sponges. I shall report to you as soon as I shall have time to thoroughly examine them.

In return for your kindness, I shall have very much pleasure in sending you specimens of whatever I may find, & I hope to be able to secure better specimens of species which I have already sent
you. I am, under strong obligations, yours truly,
W. H. Dall.

Dear Sir,
I have acknowledged with my best thanks your kindness in send-
lection of papers, & shall report to you as soon
as I shall have time to
thoroughly examine them.
In return for your kindness I shall send
of the same kind of papers to the other 8 or 10 better specimens of paper which I have already sent
you. I am
Yours truly,
