

New Casco, Maine,

Aug. 5th, 1885.

My dear Sir William;
I send you a line
to tell you of my whereabouts, in case you should wish to write to me on College business, or otherwise.

We came to this place
at a venture, and after some little delay and trouble in the way
of getting "a lady help" we took a very pretty & comfortable cottage in wh.
we are having much
quiet and renewal of health. We purpose returning to Montreat.

Cambridge
Sept 11/85

at the beginning of Sept.
So as to get ready for the Examin. The printing of the Examin. Papers. Was slowly along, and when it will be done I want over in this land of quosling, from a secret.
I have done what I
to push the business.
I think it well to remind you of the arrangement we made about the Library, lest anyone should be troubling you.
It was to give Mr. [Name] a fortnight's holiday at the end of this month and the beginning of the next, or otherwise as it might suit him, & to close the Library for

Copy 11
1852

that time, and I notified him accordingly. It will be the slack time, and as yourself, I suppose, & the rest of us will still be out of town, it will be the safest plan to keep to our resolutions, even though there may be a quarrel or two.
I trust that Lady Darnley and yourself and all the family are well
and getting plenty of rest and health. Mrs.
Carrish writes with me in all kind remembrances and regards.
I remain,
Yours sincerely,
Wm. Carrish.