10th Sept 1885 -

My dear Sir William Dawson

I find that you have adopted your second name and will take care to use it in any reference to yourself

I noticed this after I had posted my letter to you of yesterday's date, when reading the opening proceedings of the British Association - I am delighted to see that you will preside next year you will receive a hearty welcome - I am not sure whether I told you that the present Lord Chancellor (Lord Halsbury) is on my committee - In my letter posted this morning I enclosed in P.O.O. for a telegram I mention it in this ^{note}, in case it should not reach you safely - with deep esteem

Believe me ever

Yours most sincerely

Samuel Clemens

In my other note I have also sent the paragraphs altered in accordance with your kind suggestions -
