Edinburgh 19th Sept 1885.

Dear Sir William,

Again I am - & doubly your debtor, - for presents of your new book, Egypt & Syria, which I have read with interest and pleasure, - and for the kind re-membrance prompting the gift.

Please accept my warmest thanks for both.

I hope your family are well: - I can send you that record - concerning the circle on this side. My household including Gus & Em: Miley & Bell has been at Larbs on the Clyde, for August of this month, and all the members of it seem to have enjoyed & benefited by the change.

When you were here last year, you were good enough to express some interest in my son, Edwin.
- He has abandoned all farm-ing aspirations, and meantime is running a bank in one of our four branches. I intend to enter him in the Law Faculty of our University this coming winter, and hope in good time he may come away with their D. L. degree, which besides its advantage per se, will be a great help in any & every ambition.

Kindly convey my regards to Lady Dawson & your fireside circle & believe me,

Yours very sincerely
D. R. Kemp.
