My dear Sir

The second parcel of 50 copies of our present day Matt. has, I trust, reached you by express & was duly despatched. I believe the corrections you have sent will be at once made in the plates the error that escaped observation ^{and} will not appear in any reprint.
I shall be glad if you find I myself able to write a tract on the basis of the excised sections of Parity of Contention by - True words and the Sabbath, dealing with the latter question in the most comprehensive manner I can would do, and the Public an important service of sodomy -

Remain Dear Sir

faithfully yours

John Kelly
