Sir,

I beg leave to return you the list of signatures to the address to W Ruskin.

I failed to see several persons upon whom I called, but if I had a little more time, I think I could considerably increase the number.

I will send you a supplementary list in a few days. I might, in-dead, almost risk enclosing it at all, but I do not quite like the responsibility of using any one's name without his permission, however sure I may be of his sentiments.

With sincere respect,

I remain, Sir,

Yours faithfully

Wm Keade.
