

Capt to Hodder

McGill College,
Montreal.

July 1, 1886

Dear Mr Hodder,

I have received your favor of June 19th, also a note from Rev. Mr Nicoll, with reference to an article for the Spectator on the recent Antinomies about Genesis 1st.
I shall be very glad to write on the subject; and, as it is now rather popular, shall do so as early as possible.

I shall however act on Mr Nicoll's suggestion and make it fit for next or up to a certain time as

Ms. B. 1. 1. 1. 1.
Ms. B. 1. 1. 1. 1.

General notice of the salient points of the question as it has been recently argued, and shall want. tit. See Hurley's intended rejoinder in the February no. of the 19th century.

It will I think be quite possible in an article of moderate length to bring out the actual facts so far as known as to the main points of the discussion from my own standpoint and without attacking any one.

The title might be
"Recent discussions ^{the skeleton of} of Genesis ~~1st~~," or if preferred it might be — "Notes on the Mind of Creation in Genesis as Related to Modern Ideas," or if you wish a title which with a double meaning it might be "Genesis as it appears in the nineteenth century." With all kind regards
yours sincerely
J. M. Dawson

P.S. The above will be also to answer
Rev Mr. Crofts letter, Please thank him for his kind comment of the previous article
