do not maintain that their views are infallible. and all I personally desire to do is, to put forward what is practicable. The equity of the first method cannot I think be questioned. in fact it was my own draft. but I fear it will be impossible to carry it into practice. No harm can come of discussion. and I am prepared to go all lengths in claiming what we conceive to be right, if we can carry it out. Our claims should be Shubrook 16 April 1886.

My dear Sir William.

I only returned from Virginia last night and found your letter of the 29 March.

I see Würtels is now a Judge - so that the Chances of their reaching the School Law this Session are more remote than before. I noticed the result of the Teachers' Convention in the Newspapers - and was glad that the sentiment just today yet temperately forward - I find an invitation to attend the Annual McGill Dinner on the 30th Instant. I am addressed as The Pres. I must delay my answer for a day or two - for I should like to attend - feeling so deep an interest in our University work - but at present it looks impossible - Should I be able to attend I may be able to give some time to give plan for the Examinations of the Academics.

Very truly yours

W. H. Stewart
