Spring Grove,
Wendley.

22 April 1886

Dear Sir William,

I was very glad to receive your letter and can only assure you that it will give me very great pleasure to receive you at whatever time is most convenient to you. Miss Danson will I hope come with you.

Birmingham is preparing for you and I am assured the meeting will be a most successful one in every way.

When your plans are quite settled you will let me know when to expect you

Yours sincerely
J. M. H. H.
