

June 21. 1886

At a Meeting of the Council of the Senate held in the Council Room the Vice Chancellor presiding

It was agreed unanimously
"that the Degree of Doctor in Science Honoris Causa be offered to Sir William Dawson,
President-elect of the British Association for the present year. The Degree to be conferred in the ensuing Michaelmas Term if convenient to Sir W Dawson"

June 21. 1886

The Committee reviewing the report held in the presence of the
at a meeting of the Council

It was agreed unanimously that the report of the Council be referred to Dr. William Dawson
President-elect of the British Association for the present year. The report to be conferred in the summer of 1886 if convenient to Dr. Dawson.