Dear Sir Wm Dawson

Yours of the 25th came this morning I was very glad to get it and am grateful for the kind way in which you accept the vexatious task which I have thrust upon you - vexatious at a time when you are busy with non-collegiate matters.

I saw a certain Prof; Lewis yesterday - and spoke to him of the vacancy at McGill, giving him as far as I could the probable wants of the place & the kind of man whom you might like to get. Of course I was careful to explain that I was acting officially and that my interference was unauthorised and gratuitous.

~~Should~~ Prof Lewis is the head of a scholastic agency at Cambridge started on the principle that the scholastic world ought to bring act for themselves in bringing employers and employed together and keep clear of the outside mercantile "agency".

Should you wish to write to him his address is New Museum Cambridge.

We shall be glad to see you when in London. Hoping that you will find Lady & Miss Dawson the wife 2 am

Yours most faithfully

J. M. Mulgan

Enclosed is ~~the~~ a copy of the letter which I sent per Gallia to Montreal.
