Brantford Young Ladies' College,

Brantford, July 8 1886

Sir Wm. Dawson
Montreal

Dear Sir

For the vacant position of Lady Principal in our College, we have had an application from Miss Agnes E. Lewisstone, St John, and in her communication has solicited a reference to you.

I shall be exceedingly pleased to learn from you, your opinion as to the suitability of this lady for such a position; not only as to her scholastic attainments, but as to qualities of culture and refinement which make up the true lady. The chief duties devolving upon the Lady principal on those belonging to the Social life of the young Ladies.

Any information touching her Conversational gifts, personal appearance, ^{or other qualities} which, might be of service to us in making this appointment will be most thankfully received.

I have the honor to remain your Obedt. Servt.
J. W. Macintyre
