

15. 7. 86.

Dear Sir William

I leave this

Christmas

15/7/86

con I should not be to show
you all, today you
were duly admitted
as Hon: members

Yesterday, and that the Club is therefore quite at your disposal
during your stay in England.

If you will receive the found introduction
to the house, either by myself or Mr. Mangle, one of the boys will take you round when you call & invite you into the geography of the place, so that you may settle your opinion & make yourself at home.

I shall be glad to know where you are to be found.

With best regards,

believe that I am,

Y<sup>r</sup> faithfully
J. F. Armstrong

P.S. You will understand you are on precisely

the same footing as an ordinary member, as regards the use &
privileges of the Club.
