

Poole

British Museum

29 July 1886.

Dear Sir William,

I shall be
very glad to see you
whenever convenient
any day between 10.15
and 4. I leave for lunch from 1.15 to 1.45.

The Medal Room is closed at 4 and I am unable to stay in the Museum later

except by appointment.

After next week I shall be absent for the long vacation.

It will be a great pleasure to me to see by Royal Warrant your sincere
Affectionate Servant
D. B. D.
