My dear Sir William

I have taken the very great liberty of giving Mr George Egerton a card of introduction to you. He is a candidate for the post of Classical tutor at Infield tendered vacant by Mr Mulgans resignation. I know him very well and have a very high opinion of his classical attainments as well as of his personal Qualifications for such an Appointment. He has been in Canada and thoroughly understands what would be required of him.

Hoping for pardon for this very great liberty

I remain
Your most obedt<sup>t</sup> servant

R. L. Macdonnell
