DAVIOT HOUSE,
INVERNESS.

16th Aug. 1886.

Dear Sir William Dawson

I was so very sorry to see in the papers
that Lady Dawson
was among those injured in the unlucky accident at Portsmouth, I trust

however that the injury was not serious, and
that Lady Dawson
has quite recovered.

I had hoped to have been at home
during your visit to Birmingham, but

I am afraid I shall not be back till the middle of September.

My father however
wished me to say how pleased they would all be if they could have the pleasure of your company for a day or two or even

for the day according to what suits you and Lady Dawson best.

It is quite a short
journey from Birmingham to Stafford, where the carrage would meet you, if you will write one line to my father.

Earl of Suffolk
Thugbourn
Stafford

With kind regards.

Believe me

Yours sincerely

H. J. Anson
