Dear Sir William

I am indeed
pleas'd with the beautiful books
which came this morning. I shall read them with great interest and

am very proud
to possess them.
I received your letter & the slip on Tuesday afternoon.
Spring Grove is
a very pretty place.
I wonder if you
are finding time
for Arley.

Will you please give the inclosed to
Miss Dawson.

Hoping the pleasure
of the Birmingham
meeting may at least counterbalance
the fatigue of it

With kind regards to Lady Dawson
Believe me

Yours sincerely
and with renewed thanks Egbert Browne

Barnitt sends his love & a kiss & wishes me to say he is enjoying the paint-box - which is certainly very popular!
