

British Association.

Birmingham Meeting, 1886.

Reception Room,

Birmingham and Midland Institute,

Paradise Street,

September, 8th 1886.

Queen Hotel
Birmingham

Dear Sir,

Colonel Lang R.A. exhibited a picture in London (Bond St.)
called "Anno Domini"

I think you will see that the two enclosed appeals might afford to an enterprising Artist (in Canada)
a Campfire picture

Anno Domini 1886-

& Believe me to remain

Yours respectfully
G. G. Heatley

A pulpit wanted, in the National Church, in which Liberty will be allowed to teach the truth of Christ (unveiled, openly & fearlessly in order that it may no longer remain either a stumbling block to the Jews & Scribes or to the world or a mystery (as it is to the present day for want only of their Liberty) but may verily be seen to be as it is & as St. Paul asserted it to be the wisdom of God & the power of God for the salvation of all men

Address Rev T. G. Headley Manor House Petersham P.W.
N.B. The Chief organs of the Church & the Press (the Times) refused to publish this even as an Advertisement Annus Domini 1886

An Appeal to the Clergy & people of the Church of England for a pulpit in which to preach seven sermons on

- | | |
|-----------------------|--------------------------|
| 1 Unbelief | 4 Mary Magdalene |
| 2 Trial of Abraham | 5 Conversion of St. Paul |
| 3 The day of judgment | 6 Jesus only |
| | 7 Inspirations. &c &c |

Address Rev T. G. Headley Manor House Petersham P.W.

N.B.
The Chief organs of the Church & the Press (the Times) refused to pub-lish even as an Advertisement either of the above two Appeals
Annus Domini 1886