

Airedale College,
Bradford.

Sept. 8. '86.

My dear, honoured Teacher,

For my friends the Committee of our Town Mission as well as for myself I have to send warmest thanks for your kind, generous reply. Altho' you could not be with us, we feel you have blessed us almost as if you had been able to come. The knowledge of your mind towards such social efforts as our Town Mission make will be a blessing to all who know it.

I conveyed your kind greetings to Mr. & Mrs.
Brailsford, and shall present them also to Mr.
J. Henry Mitchell at the earliest opportunity.

I hope your voyage may be a pleasure to Lady Dawson Mrs Dawson & yourself and that the good Alma mater may take this British Association meeting of 1886, not as a climax, altho' such it is, but as an era's end and an era's opening.

With ever devoted regard — and love, for

I owe so much, to yourself, and with great regard for Lady Dawson in which Mrs. Duff joins

I remain faithfully your pupil

Archibald Duff.
