

C. J.
Watterson

Sept 9/86

Dear Mr Watterson,

I cannot leave England without addressing a few words to you in final recognition of all that Birmingham has done for ^{your} ~~the~~ Meeting of the Anti-Slavery Society. Personally I must thank you for the kindness and hospitality which I have to say my dear

and as President I ~~cannot but feel that~~

~~The~~ are deeply weary of the manner in which Congress was treated by the Social Committee
so that their leaving abruptly with little what would cause of anxiety or uneasiness to the eyes of the masses while as the whole
must be well known that we will have

Amberpainted to mark the Monday Special and market, Friday in the market up to the lower and higher buying & the seller of the same buying & over the Monday & the Roberts and Casey & the Preparation manure entertainment & Washington buying when always manure the express of the week,

Thank my mother and her lessons want pleasant
the full and necessary grammar to which the
was important of the lower school were from any where was than I observed,

My regret in the
from which I can see
that in the can in the
