My dear Mr Mann

It is only this morning I got your note by the last instant and gave my glad welcome from it that the prospect of attendance at the Donalda classes for the present session is so encouraging Twenty two when last I was probable, undergraduates as a commencement is a good showing, and it is always a gain to have ladies attend the classes even as occasional students.

It is probable that you would be glad in a formal commencement about the Endowment and that he had to complete the payment without delay. With kind regards to Lady Dawson, yours truly
Henry Jones
