

Thurston, 1886.

Dear Sir William,

I thank you very much for the copy of your address delivered to the Teachers' Association, which I was so unfortunately prevented from hearing. At the close of the year's official relationship in this branch of educational work permit me to express to you my deep sense of your personal kindness and the great pleasure it has given me to work with you for the common good. I would like to add that whatever may have been our difference of opinion in the past, & whatever

My defects in manner & expression, I have always entertained the kindest feelings towards yourself personally, & realized, in some degree at least, the great value of your services as Principal of Weymouth, as an educator, & as a Christian gentleman.

With kindest regards,

Yours, very sincerely,

J. W. Kelley
