DICTATED.

SIR J. WILLIAM DAWSON,
MCGILL COLLEGE,
Montreal, Canada.

Dear Sir:

Yours of the 12th was recd. this day.

I regret to learn that you can give us only the two Sunday evenings mentioned. However, I will confer with the other members of the committee, and will write you again on Monday.

In regard to the special theme, I think it may be safely left to your judgment. There have been no lectures on the Graham foundation for about twenty years, and there is nothing to limit your free choice of any theme which in your judgment may best set forth "the power, wisdom and goodness of God, as manifested in His works". Ordinary Sunday evening sermons are poorly attended in Brooklyn, but discourses from a man of science will be most welcome.

I will send you definite reply on Monday, or at the latest on Tuesday.

I remain, dear Sir, yours respectfully,

C. L. Woodbridge
