

Chas D Loring

July 20/87

Dear Mr Loring,

In answer
to yours of July 8th,
which was forwarded
here when in Boston, I would say that in my judgment a union,
if of the right sort,
would be preferable,
but it may perhaps be easier to find

is also a Miss ^{Agnes E} Livingstone in No 9th Ave

Brunswick, who is with inquiring about, if you can find out her

address which I do not know, <sup>she is a Service Associate in Arts
of this University.</sup>

Because this last note written amid many distractions. If I can learn anything further I shall write again

Truly yours
J. M. Dawson

a suitable man with a wife who could help him.

The only available
woman I know of at present is Miss Helen Freeman, now teaching at Woodstock, Ontario, (with a salary of $650^{& board} *). She is a graduate of

* In Woodstock College.

Wellesley College, and I have had her
in view in case
we should need
such a person here.
You might however
secure her services
if you can offer a better position than that which she now has. There
