Dear Sir William,

I am writing a series of short illustrations of the Shorter Catechism - I have come to the work of Creation and I would be greatly obliged if you would read it and let me know if you think it can pass muster.

Any changes you might suggest I should be happy to make and if you would allow me to append a note stating that you had seen it and that it met with your approval I would be still more obliged - I generally post these on Saturday - They appear in the Presbyterian Review, Toronto.

I trust you enjoyed your visit to New York and that you have returned in good health & spirits

Yours very sincerely
