Dear Sir:—

We have your favor of the 25th.
The box has been to-day forwarded to your address by express marked as desired.

We quite agree with you that it was very wrong for the Custom's authorities here to charge any duty.
We were careful to point out to them the nature of the contents and also the destination of the box.
Unfortunately daily experience teaches us that the Custom's authorities are not very reasonable or liberal in dealing with similar matters.

We were compelled to authorize our brokers to pass the thing in the way indicated.

We enclose bill for charges; kindly remit at your convenience.
Yours Truly,

(Enclosure)

Thos's Cook & Son.
