Dear Mr Hodder,

Since I last wrote I have been so much struck with the present importance of the scientific questions arising about the Public and Private Lands that I have been disposed to abandon altogether the idea of throwing my notes into the form of Papers and of adopting the form of a series of Studies, instead of three in the

Agella D. H. 2078
Larrinam

Reprinted but more popular and abridged This might include, —

Questions relating ^{origin of} to Abraham and his Man

Eden and its site

The Deluge

Abraham and his descendants plus of his

Ancient Peoples of the East

Questions relating to the Patriarchal History & Phys features of Palestine,

Egypt and its relations

The Deluge ^{to the Bible} ~~and its~~ ^{and its} ~~and its~~

The Exodus

and

Questions relating to the origin of the Dead Sea, the Deluge, the eye of the Delta, the residence of Israel in Egypt and many others would come up under the above and would cover the same ground contemplated in my Lovellus notes and I think true acceptably.

In this case it may not be necessary to think of any reprint of the Reporter articles as suggested in my last.
