Sir William Dawson

Montreal

My dear Sir

I take the liberty of introducing my friend Dr J. W. Stirling who has been study-ing at Edinburgh, and on the Continent for some years, and now intends to settle down in your City and practice his Specialty as Oculist and Artist. I have known him from his boyhood, his father being a near neighbour of mine and particular friend,

I would feel so grateful if you would give Stirling and encourage ~~and~~, and any introductions to Physicians who might keep him along. he is a very steady, excellent young man, and if he gets a stout will work his way creditably. I am quite sure,

I am quite aware you are overrun with work, but neither shyly or I ask any more than your influence and a kind word. Kindly introduce him to your son,

With my kind regards to Lady Dowson.

Believe me
My dear Sir
Yours very faithfully
J. Maclean

My introduction to the who ought help him stay. he is a very healthy young man, and of the about five weeks his habitually I am quite I am quite sure you are certainly not weak, but likely to I will say your physician was a man. I think it to you too,
with my best regards to the family
Believe me
Yours truly
John G. ...
