

Leona Little
Munsey

Essex,
Surrey, England
June 9/87.

Sir W. Dawson: -

Dear Sir,

Your letter of May 13 relative to the Tragalgar Institute has come to hand, after a circuitous journey -
Under some circumstances I should have been very glad to assist in a work as interesting as that which you have outlined - This would,
however, now be impossible.

as I have laid aside
my work of teaching, and am at present in England on my wedding trip -

I regret that you should have had the trouble of writing to his purpose -

Hoping that you have ere this secured an efficient - Principal, and that the work of the Institute may be crowned with great success,

I remain

respectfully yours,
Ellen Freeman Trotter.

