

NEW YORK HOTEL,

New York,

July 6 1887

Dear Sir William Dawson,

I am greatly obliged to you for so promptly sending me the Syllabus. At the present moment it is in the hands of Messrs. Harper Bros. I have "two strings to my bow" so that if they do not agree to take plates of an Edition, I have another firm who would like to have the book.

With Cordial regards
Believe me

Yours Sincerely,
M. H. Hodder
