

Germantown. Philadelphia Pa.
July 7th 1887.

Dear Sir: -

I addressed to you (from Johns Hopkins University) some months ago, a prospectus of a course of lectures on Scientific Psychology, which I shall be prepared to deliver during the coming Academic year.

Having received no reply to the same, I take the liberty of inquiring as to the prospects of your being able to make use of my services - especially whether any action upon the matter has been taken or is likely to be taken in the near future.

Believe me sincerely yours
Joseph Goshaw.
