Sir J. W. Dawson, F.R.S. &c

Dear Sir

Your very encouraging letter at hand. I can state in answer to your request, as to meetings you would be able to address, that the Supy of Education will be most pleased to make a place for you in the meetings of the Association of Teachers held at that time.

He is most anxious that you shall take part in the exercise and give your presence and your large experience for the furtherance of his provincial Staff.

I send you programme for week, and can only say that we will have a public meeting free of such a nature that you will feel nothing to regret. If you will only meet with us,

Your very great kindness with respect to expenses is worthy one who has given
