NEW YORK.

My dear Sir:

I see that you have arranged for me illustrations to face each chapter. Many of the illustrations are too small to look well on a page & this neces-itates beginning the chapters on the right hand page in all cases, & in addition will make the book longer.

Have you any objection

for their consideration.
I am, Sir, very respectfully, Your obedient servant,

to inserting the illustrations in the text? They could go at the beginning of the chapters or wherever you may select.

Yours very truly
