Dear Sir William

I would have replied to your kind note sooner but Dr. Harrington's letter did not reach me and I did not care to accept your invitation until I knew what was expected of me. I now have his letter and have just written to him to say that I shall be happy to lecture. It will give me great pleasure to be Lady Dawson's and your guest when in Montreal for that purpose.

Yours truly
Charles Farpman

Dear Sir William

I would have applied to you for the money but Mr. Thompson's letter did not reach me and I did not care to accept your invitation until I saw what was expected of me. I now have his letter and have just written to him to say that I shall be happy to lecture. It will give the great pleasure to be

great when in the
