

Autumn Theological Seminary,
Autumn, N. Y., U. S. A., Dec. 14. 1887.

Dear Sir J. W. Dawson, LL.D., F. R. S., F. G. S., Principal of McGill Col. & Uni., Montreal,

We of the Faculty of this Seminary are delighted that we can again invite you to deliver a course of lectures to our students and the public, some time during the coming winter.

A friend of the Seminary enables us to offer you two hundred and fifty dollars ($250⁰⁰/₁₀₀) for three or four consecutive lectures - either number as you may prefer.

We are aware that this is no great pecuniary inducement to accept our invitation, but we earnestly beseech you to accept it notwithstanding. If you will accept it, we will be glad to have you come before or about the middle of December, or in the latter half of November, or, after the Holiday Reccess, towards the middle of January—the first date preferable.

We all, in my family, are overjoyed at the prospect of having you for a guest again, and it is understood that, in case you come, you are to make your home with us.

Trusting that you will not disappoint us, & with the kind regards of Mrs. Huntington, her sister & my daughter, I am,

Sincerely & very respectfully Yours,
E. A. Huntington.
