

Stygg
Inveraray
Argyllshire
Dec: 20/87

My dear Sir William

I have read with great interest of the pamphlet on the University grievances which have arisen in the Province of Quebec.

They bear upon our Irish Controversy here; because they show a practical example

of the methods of which Religious persecution, intolerance may find vent in small
local Governments
in spite of formal
"Guarantees" such as may be carved in a Paper Constitution

I should like very much to have any further information about

it, which you can give me.

Do the R. Catholics really intend to cast the Protestants out of the Provinces in Quebec.
It seems difficult to conceive such a thing nowadays. Yet I believe that the combined jealousy of Race & of Religion is "capable de tout."

We are all
much interested in Darwin's life. It raises him as a man - and as an observer - but I think it looks him as a philosopher.

Yours af
Osgood