

70. Bram Stoker

Essay. Dec. 27. 87

Dear Sir William.

An English Gentleman, a barrister in London, who has brought introductions to me from Dr Douglas Powell of London, is remaining in the city for a few weeks, with a brother who comes from London, previous to their making a trip together thro' British Columbia to Alaska - where they purpose exploring Mt St Elias. They are very anxious to get what information they can of the Country while here - and purpose joining your classes at the college in Geology. And also in Botany.

Knowing how extensive have been the travels of Dr. Geo.
Dawson in that district I thought you would be the only one in the city, who could give them the information they desire -

May I as a favor bring them up some morning this week to see you; perhaps Thursday morning, if convenient to you. - Or if you will kindly say the next convenient time for yourself. I will arrange to suit quite your convenience.

I am
Yours truly
A. Blackford
