

Phawon 10th April

Dear Sir William,

I hope you will sooner or later find a moment or two to think of a subject for the next meeting of the Royal Society, & still be able to work it out in time.

The general feeling of the Council was not to postpone, except after a discussion of the matter at the May meeting.

You will receive in a day or two a report of the Council with the [Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

1842

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

Members of votes polled in each vacancy in the 3 sections, No election was made.
The responsibility now falls on the Society itself. I shall also enclose each member a revised copy of the Rules in pamphlet form.

I understand strong representations have been made by the Premier, the Lieutenant Governor of Ontario to the effect that in view of the whole I write you about I did not really wish you to bother yourself about it except an opportunity happened yours sincerely
J. Bowring

Penn
1888