Dear Sir Charles,

I am glad to say that the degree of Sc.D. to Prof Freeman was passed unannounced
yesterday, and will be publicly
conferred (in absentia)
on Monday.

The parchment
is made out,
and can be sent to Prof. H.
any time after
Monday. May
I send it to you to be forwarded, or shall I have
it sent direct

I live at Cirencester College, which I suppose is his present address.

It can be sent either as a
roll in a tin
case, or folded
in an envelope.
The latter is the

From ~~the~~ ⁱⁿ wheels for convenience we have usually sent degrees
abroad.

Truly yours
