

Halifax,
June 4th 1888

Dear Sir William,

In compliance with your Kind request, I now respectfully recall your attention to the Interprovincial Convention of Teachers to be held at St John, N.B. on the 18th and 19th of July. From all quarters comes an expression of earnest hope that your engagements and health will permit you to be present. It is not the purpose of the Committee of Management, I understand, to assign any formal duty to the distinguished visitors expected to be present, while at the same time every opportunity will be afforded them of speaking and using wisdom as they may be inclined to favor us with. Myself, Sir William, anticipate the pleasure of your presence.

Ever sincerely yours
David Allison

Dear Sir,

I am sorry to hear that you are unable to attend the meeting of the Edinburgh Convention on the 18th and 19th of July. It is a pity that you are unable to attend, as you are one of our best men. I am sure that your presence would have been of great value to the Convention. I am sure that you will be able to attend next year. I am sure that you will be able to attend next year. I am sure that you will be able to attend next year.

Yours faithfully,
James Watson
