Dear Sir,

who paid a hurried visit to Montreal last week, much regrets that his time was so limited that he was unable to make use of an introduction to yourself kindly given him by his friend Mr D. W. Kemp, of Edinburgh.

He would not have troubled you with this note, but thought it possible that Mr Kemp had written you direct with reference to his visit & that you might be expecting a call.

Please do not trouble to acknowledge this note. Believe me,

Yours faithfully,
Geo. Roche.
